Edge's Settings

The screenshot displays the Microsoft Edge Settings application. On the left is a sidebar with a search bar and a list of settings categories. The 'Profiles' category is selected and highlighted. The main content area is titled 'Your profile' and includes an 'Add profile' button. Below this is a decorative banner with a laptop and a smartphone. The 'Profile 1' section shows a user profile card with a description and a link to the Microsoft Privacy Statement. A 'Choose an account' dropdown menu is open, showing the email 'gmweiss5@gmail.com' and a 'Sign in to sync data' button. Below the profile section is the 'Profile settings' area, which lists various settings like Sync, Microsoft Rewards, Import browser data, Profile preferences, and Share browsing data with other Windows features. At the bottom is the 'Microsoft Wallet' section, which includes an 'Open Wallet' button and links to Payment info, Passwords, and Personal info.

Google's Settings

The image shows a screenshot of the Chrome browser's Settings page. The browser's address bar displays 'chrome://settings'. The left sidebar contains a list of settings categories: You and Google, Autofill and passwords, Privacy and security, Performance, Experimental AI, Appearance, Search engine, Default browser, On startup, Languages, Downloads, Accessibility, System, Reset settings, Extensions, and About Chrome. The main content area is titled 'You and Google' and features a search bar. Below the search bar, there is a section for 'Get Google smarts in Chrome' with the subtext 'Sync and personalize Chrome across your devices'. A user profile for 'Gail Weiss' is shown, signed in to 'gmweiss5@gmail.com', with a 'Turn on sync...' button. Below this, there are several menu items: 'Sync and Google services', 'Manage your Google Account', 'Customize your Chrome profile', and 'Import bookmarks and settings', each with a right-pointing arrow.
